Disorder of some importance was created here yesterday by the Socialists, and the Monarchists had something to do with it also. About 1,000 persons marched through the street and, in front of the Hotel de Ville, shouted "Give us Work and Bread!"

By some effort the gathering was dispersed without resort to armed force. Nevertheless, similar scenes to-morrow (Sunday) are apprehended, and the authorities are taking energetic steps to maintain order.

THE WESTERN LANDS.

The letter which we give at foot, and which we received yesterday morning, will explain not only the public interest taken in this question, but also the great necessity of teaching the farmers outside how to obtain frontier lands, the capital and stock required, and the probable future held out to those who have the way and the means to settle on them.

Day by day as this country grows the struggle for a living becomes sharper. Our correspondent says that on many of the estancias now, a man with a large family will not be hired, as the meat allowed at a 'puesto' is but one 'capon' a week, which is utterly insufficient to feed even a small family, and to the present the average consumption on the sheep farms is two capones a week at each 'puesto.'

Few men, as a rule, can start in the camp without some capital, but it is not necessary for a camp man to have a very large capital to make a homestead on the new lands. As a rule, most of the owners of these frontier lands would be only too happy to give camp free, for a certain number of years, to any farmer with a large family who has sufficient means to pay for making a house and 'jaguel,' and enough of stock to keep his family. We estimate the stock necessary to support a family on the outside camps at 200 cows, and from 800 to 1000 sheep. With this stock and a half a league of camp, with a rancho and a 'jaguel,' the pioneer farmer may look confidently to a very comfortable independence in 4 or 5 years. When out the other day at the Loreto camps we saw a farmer who some 3 years ago started out there with 800 cows; to-day his 'rodeo' is over 3000; he came from the Baradero ruined; now he is prosperous and happy.

For those who have no stock and very little capital, we should recommend them to apply to Mr Casey for a chacra farm at the new town on the Venado Tuerto, as the land assigned for the town is being cut up into chacra lands, and with a little help the first year, the farmer can sow his crops and from any of the estancias get a loan of milch cows, which will always go a long way towards maintaining the family.

The Loreto camps, to be sold on next Thursday, will be sold on 4 years' credit, which will be a great help to the small farmer, and any man that has 500 cows and 1000 sheep has sufficient stock and capital to buy, say two leagues, and make a start with his family outside. Twenty odd years ago the Provincial Government of Buenos Aires began to divide and fraction the land about Chivilcoy and sell to farmers and chacareros good sized farms on long credit at the rate of 400,000 % per league; it is much to be regretted that the Provincial Government did not continue with its programme, which gave such excellent results in Chivilcoy. Had the Government continued selling to small farmers as it did at Chivilcoy, we should have to-day as much industry in the Province of Buenos Aires as in Santa Fe, but from one cause or other the Government stopped short, and we all know the sequel of the public land sales at the Government House; only millionaires could buy, the poor farmer was pushed aside, and whole territories have for 20 years been lost to the Plough.

In the sale of the Loreto camps, we believe, if the bidders so require, lots of half a league will be sold, and as the purchaser has only to pay one-fourth cash, and the balance in four years, a small estancia out there will be within the reach of every man who owns half a flock of sheep; but farmers who intend settling on these new camps should always bear in mind that the camps outside are very different from the sheepfarms in Areco and Lujan, and that a small point of cattle on these lands will do better than a fine flock of sheep at Mercedes.

We have on our table piles of circulars, pamphlets, plans, maps, etc., published in London and the United States, about Manitoba, Idaho and all the immense tracts of land in the great northern territory of Canada, yet in all these attractive, well got up papers we can find no safer, easier, or better terms for the poor man than those to be had here; and if we can in the least help our poorer countrymen in the camp to gain the road of fortune on these new western camps, which are now so much brought on the market, we shall consider our humble labours amply repaid.

The following is the letter:—

Estancia San Ramon

Mr. Capataz of the estancia, would be very thankful to you for a little explicit information regarding the sale of lands on the frontiers. Being the fortunate possessor of a large family and a few spare dollars, he would like to know how he might best benefit one and dispose of the other. Inside land being dear and labour scarce, it must be the frontiers or the United States; not only for him but several of your readers. By giving through the Standard some information in regard to the disposal and price of this new land many of your readers in moderate circumstances would be able to form some idea as to what would be best to do; for it has become impossible for a poor man to bring up a family on the wages paid for labour by sheepfarmers. Many of them in this partido (Irish in particular) will not engage a man with family that would consume more than one capon per week. The publication of the above and a few lines in answer, will be very welcome to several of your readers.

This letter is written not for my own benefit, but merely to oblige several men who are anxious to move some place from here—to this new land, if they were only acquainted with the method of disposal and the quantities—if their means would or will allow them.

Yours,

A Subscriber.

THE AFFAIR IN THE ANDES.

At last we have General Villegas's official report of the unfortunate encounter, between the Chilian and Argentine troops in the Andes; and the delay in the receipt of this important document is accounted for by the loss of the first despatch in the river Limay. We publish at foot the despatch, which, we must say, gives this melancholy affair a very different color, and throws on it a very changed light to that afforded us by the first despatches received from Chile.

General Villegas appears to be conducting his expeditionary campaign with great prudence, and the refuge which the Indians seem to enjoy in the Chilian territory inspires us all with a suspicion that the energy which the Argentine General has shown in pushing the Indians back on the Andes merits the fullest approval of his Government and the country. This National expedition is perhaps the most important on record, and calculated to secure us results of the very highest importance.

It is quite clear now that had the Argentine Government not ordered this expedition, from 2 to 3,000 lances would have permanently held that country, to the immense risk of the people and settlers on the Rio Negro. Villegas has, however, pushed his troops into the very heart of this splendid territory, and rid the settlers in the far Southof these permenent marauders, with whom it was impossible to treat until first thoroughly broken and subjected. The following is the despatch:

Limay, March 10th.

To H.E. the Minister of War.

Official—Most urgent.

On the 23d of last February I sent an urgent telegram to your Excellency, and as I learned at 3 p.m. to-day that the orderlies who carried that despatch for the telegraph office at Limay, were carried away by the current, when crossing the Negro, and lost all the mails; and as I have just received your Excellency's telegram in which you inform me that you have received, via Chile, an account of the fight between Argentine and Chilian troops, I now repeat my telegram as follows:—

Official.

February 23d.

I have just received a despatch from Colonel Godoy that a detachment of the Second Brigade, stationed at Pulmary, in this Republic, while pursuing some Indian robbers were attacked by 50 Chilian Infantry, supported by 150 Indians, who charged our little force of only 16 men with the bayonet; but they were beaten off, leaving 7 dead and some wounded on the field. On our side we had two killed and one wounded, of the 2d Battalion. Six Martin-Henry rifles, one kepi, some cartridge boxes and a cartridge belt with "Guardia Nacional" on it were taken from the enemy.

Through some prisoners captured, we have learned that, at Henñicul in this Republic, the Chilians are building a fort, garrisoned by 40 or 50 infantry, Colonel Godoy informs me that he has given orders to capture and disarm this force in case the news should prove true. I have approved this officer's action in the matter, while advising him to be very prudent, in view of the serious nature of the case, and I look for Y.E.'s approval of what I have done, as it was in defence of the honour of the nation and its territorial integrity.

God guard Y.E.,

General Villegas.

Having sent this telegram, I communicated to the Commander of Arms all that has happened, sending copies of all the documents, etc. I hope my despatch has not met the same fate as that to Y.E.

I have given orders that the greatest tact and prudence be observed, in order to avoid any collision with the troops of the neighbouring Republic. I should inform Y.E. that our troops have not advanced one step beyoed the place where the fight took place, as their numbers being so small, and having no knowledge of the country, they retired to their original position. The officer whose troops met the Chilians is Commander Diaz, of the 2d Battalion.

Our loss was two killed and one wounded of said Battalion. I have ordered an inquiry into the whole affair, and Commander Diaz to report himself at the head-quarters of the Brigade, and Y.E. may rest assured that every step taken in the matter will be duly weighed, as is necessary in cases of the kind.

God guard you,

General Villegas.

Nahuel Huapi.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our Own Correspondent.)

February 1st.

About a fortnight ago the French ignored there were princes living in their midst, since they have discovered the fact and concluded they are lying in ambush to slay the Republic; hence the agitation to banish the descendants of the reigning families and so finish with royal conspirators and pretenders more or less pretending. It is curious to trace the origin of the present not only political, but perhaps historical, crisis in France.

The director of Montseau-les-Mines employs several hundred hands; his wife, who is very religious, induced her husband last summer, to refuse work to all who would not attend church: Some miners objecting, they were dismissed; their comrades sided with them; mysterious raids were made against the local chapels and religious emblems; arrests were effected, the Government prosecuted; but during the trial, anticipating an acquittal of the accused, the unheard of course was adopted of stopping the trial, and carrying the issue later, elsewhere. Then the Socialists entered on the scene headed by Prince Krapotkine; a score of accused were tried, found guilty, and the heaviest penalty of the Code applied.

The extreme radicals felt very sore at all this. But a windfall arrived in the manifesto of Prince Napoleon; the radical deputies under Floquet seized the ball at the bound, magnified the ludicrous incident, accused the Duclerc Cabinet of ability to be Draconian towards ignorant miners and Socialists without a following, but afraid of a Napoleonic squib. The Cabinet fell into the trap, and accepted the Floquet bill of proscription against all princes, with certain modifications—thus holding the sword over the heads of the suspected so as to permit them to prefer self-expatriation, or persuasive guillotining.

As the Orleanists of late years have drifted into the position of universal legatees of the Republic, the republicans have turned the Prince Napoleon incident against them. No serious attention is given to the latter eccentric individual; he will remain in prison till a presidential decree orders his expulsion. There are as many ways for conspiring as for cooking eggs, and though no direct proofs have been furnished that the Orleanist princes have dipped into criminal conspiracy, yet the impression is wide-spread, and since the hare has been started a fortnight ago it has become an article of belief with no surrender republicans, that the said princes are insidiously at work, personally by their hospitality; Prince Louis Napoleon operated in that fashion at Satory, and more actively by the social and financial influences of their sympathizers, to trip up the constitution.

Dinners are said to govern men. Thus the Duc d'Aumale is set down as a conspirator, because he invites friends, and the local military officers to his chateau at Chantilly; the Comte de Paris acts similarly at Eu, and the Duc de Chartres at Rouen. The princes too send presents of game to officers' messes, and when a noted royalist's daughter marries, quite a number of military guests always happen to be invited. Many distinguished enemies of the Republics are fast friends of the Orleanist princes, and several legislators passing for model republicans have also a foot in their camp. Louis Philippe, when he cut out his relative Charle X in 1830, was presented to the nation by Lafayette as "the best of republicans"—the prelude to being King.

The Duc de Broglie and his party are Orleanists, and their role against the Republic is too recent to be forgotten; they arranged the fusion of the Comte de Paris with the Comte de Chambord, then they conspired against the latter when the fusion proved a failure: they conspired against MacMahon in 1877, and their efforts up to the present are directed to run the Duc d'Aumale as successor to M Grevy, who would only be too happy to escape from the cares of the Presidency.

Such is the republican's bill of indictment. They do not accuse the princes of buying roses to conceal their poignards, as did Harmodius and Aristogiton when they aimed at Pisistratus; they do not believe that the secret is so organized that a Léna would bite off her tongue and throw it at the judges, rather than make a revelation; there is no conspiracy in the sense of a Titus Oates, of a Cinq-Mars, or a Cadoudal or a Mazzini. But the Orleanists embody all the enemies of the Republic which is seated on the ruins of preceding governments, who desire its fall and gloat over all that can achieve such a consummation. The princes thus create a special atmosphere; a 'milieu' at once feverish, uneasy, and nervous, agitated by the slightest trepidation, where the news the most extravagant, the recitals the most false, and the plats the most extravagant, find a ready and welcome ear.

THE PHŒNIX PARK CRIME

EVIDENCE OF THE CAR DRIVER.

THE ASSASSINS IDENTIFIED.

Dublin, Feb. 12th.

An informer has, at last, revealed the mystery of the Phœnix Park assassination. After waiting for nine months, the world can now read from the lips of one of the participators the story of the most dreadful political murder of modern times. Not even the most sanguine ever expected that justice would be otherwise vindicated. The only persons who saw the terrible "scuffle" or "fight," as the crime has been called, were either too distant, or so ignorant of the real nature of the tragedy enacted before them that they were unable to give even a fair description of the men who formed that murderous group. Only one man (the Park Ranger, Godden) was able to give the police the slightest aid in compiling the descriptions of the occupants of the car which he met driving furiously from the Park. This, of course, greatly increased the difficulties of the police. As month succeeded month, and no sign was given by the authorities that they were in possession of reliable evidence, the public began to despair, and the eagerness with which they caught at the morbid stories of self-accusers only heightened this sentiment of hopelessness. What the offer of a reward of unprecedented amount failed to effect has been brought about by the nameless apprehension of the unrevealed strength and resources of the law. It must be remembered that the police had to deal with no amateurs in the art of secrecy and conspiracy, but with those who formed the latest actors in a long traditional history of seditious and criminal mystery—journeymen in the art of hidden combination, and enforcing their decrees by the most terrible sanctions. These are considerations which cannot be overlooked in estimating the significance of this delay. Had the police acted earlier, or on general evidence less strong than that which they had gathered, the evidence of yesterday might never have been given.

The appearance of Kilmainham Court-house at half-past twelve o'clock yesterday afternoon gave strong emphasis to the rumors that had gone abroad during the previous two days, to the effect that the Crown had at last drawn the net round the assassins beyond all possibility of escape. Every seat was occupied by an eager and interested listener. The scanty space allotted to the Press was crowded to overflowing by representatives from every part of the kingdom. The Bar and all the public departments were represented, while those members of the general public who had orders to the narrow galleries included members of the Nobility and the Professions—Divinity and medicine, artists, professors, magistrates, and even the representatives of an English constituency. Every eye was fixed on the door leading into the Court-house from the adjoining gaol, when an unusual bustle among the large body of police and detectives indicated that the Prisoners were coming in. First came Joe Brady, swaggering and defiant as ever, closely followed by his youthful companion in crime, Tim Kelly. Then came James Carey, Town Councillor for Arran Quay Ward, pale and dejected, wearing the usual black gloves, the only respectable-looking member of the gang. Following Carey were James Mullet, Laurence Hanlon, Joseph Mullett, Daniel Delaney, Edward O'Brien, John Moroney, Michael Fagan, and last of all a bloated, broken-nosed, red-haired cabdriver, named James FitzHarris, popularly known as "Skin," an abbreviation of his sobriquet "Skin the Goat." The Prisoners exchanged the usual greetings as they took their places in the dock, displaying outwardly all their former nonchalance and indifference of demeanour. A close observer might have seen, however, the rapid glance which Joe Brady, from his accustomed corner at the front of the dock, cast among the ranks of his companions behind him. The keenest apprehension was visible on his face when he saw that several of the men who had stood beside him last Monday were not there then, and this apprehension deepened into scowling gloom when he saw a pale, meek-looking man, brought in by a warder, sit down on a chair just beneath him on the gangway before the dock. This shaven and cropped invalid was none other than Patrick Delaney, who a month ago was sentenced to penal servitude for ten years for attempting to shoot Judge Lawson. He is apparently in very feeble health, and every now and again had to be supplied with sips of cold water. Thomas Doyle, the man arrested on Friday, and who, it appears, induced Kavanagh to join the Fenian Society, was also brought in and placed beside Pat Delaney. There was then a painful pause of about ten seconds, during which the presiding Magistrate, Mr Keys, looked inquiringly at Mr Murphy, Q.C., the leading Crown prosecutor. Mr Murphy made no sign, but at that moment a detective entered the Court at the side door, and led forward to the foot of the steps the carman, Michael Kavanagh. Instantly a visible sensation ran through the Court; excitement, expectancy, and curiosity were depicted on every countenance. Among the occupants of the dock the confusion and consternation were obvious. Every eye was rivetted on the figure which was mounting the few steps leading to the chair on the witness table. Kavanagh looked neither to right nor left. He hurriedly seized the Testament which the Clerk held out to him, and kissed it once or twice before a word of the usual oath had been uttered. This brief ceremony over, he seated himself uneasily in the chair, turned sharply round, facing the Crown counsel, and, with heightened colour and husky voice, began to tell his terrible story, without so much as the charge against the prisoners being read or their names called out.

Mr Murphy plunged at once into the work before him. Complete silence reigned in the Court as his clear voice put the opening question—"Kavanagh, were you the owner of a car in May last?" "Yes," came the husky answer. And then step by step, and from point to point, the informer detailed the terrible occurrences of the 6th of May from the time when he first joined "the boys" with his horse and car at Wren's public-house in Dame-street until he dropped his "fares" at the public-house close to Leeson-street Bridge at nine o'clock the same night. The demeanour of the Prisoners had now changed to one of blank dismay. Brady's look of astonishment had given place to a scowl of hate and despair; Kelly seemed to regard Kavanagh with some amount of curiosity, as if wondering how much he would reveal. Carey's face was puckered with many an anxious wrinkle, while others among the group looked undoubtedly as if much they were to hear would be as new to them as to the audience. Perhaps the most shocking incident of the day was one in which the chief assassin, Brady, was the principal actor. When Kavanagh was asked who were on his car when he left the Royal Oak public-house on May 6th to enter the Park, the first name he uttered was that of Joe Brady. The Prisoner gave utterance to a loud guttural "Ah-h-h," into which he seemed to throw the whole concentrated passion of his nature. His eyes flashed; his lips were tightly drawn back, his teeth set, and as the sound hissed from his throat he threw his arms in a gesture of despair on the front of the dock, and buried his face in the ample sleeves of his frieze topcoat.

Kavanagh's account of the tragedy and the movements of the assassins varies very much from the commonly accepted theories which have hitherto been entertained. Mr Burke was without doubt the intended victim, and Lord Frederick Cavendish lost his life solely owing to the accident of Mr Burke overtaking him as he was walking leisurely through the Park. Had he been ten minutes earlier, he would no doubt have been allowed to pass unmolested along the path to the Chief Secretary's Lodge, while Mr Burke, who followed, would have been attacked. Indeed, it seems doubtful whether the assassins knew who their second victim was when they plunged their terrible knives into his body. The reply made by Carey or Delaney to Kavanagh when he asked what mission they were on was, 'Watching the Secretary,' and when they joined the group at the place fixed for executing the fearful crime, the informer heard some one say, "The tall man is the one." Mr Burke was very much taller than Lord Frederick Cavendish. When Kavanagh proceeded to relate what occurred at the time of the murders, scarcely a sound was audible in the densely-crowded Court. Listeners held their breath, and some bent their heads as if unable to look on the face of a man who had been an eye-witness of that awful deed. With his eyes bent to the table before him, his hands placed firmly on his knees, Kavanagh slowly and distinctly answered Mr Murphy's questions. A few minutes after he had driven Delaney and Carey up to the 'crowd,' as he termed the group of assassins, he was told to drive a short distance along the road towards the Phœnix Column. He did so, and just at the moment he was passed by two tricyclists going towards town. These are the brassfitters from Inchicore Works, who state that they actually passed the assassins, while they were engaged in their murderous work, and that Lord Frederick Cavendish, when struck, actually fell against one of their machines. They fled in terror. Kavanagh continued that immediately after the tricyclists passed he heard some one cry "Oh!" and looking round from his seat on the car he saw the tall gentleman fall, and then the other fell also, but on the roadway, after standing for a moment in an attitude of helpless defence. The assassins instantly jumped on the car. This was all that Kavanagh told. He said nothing about seeing knives, or who struck the blows, although he could hardly fail to have seen which of his companions wielded the terrible weapons with which the Secretaries were put to death. This, it is believed is reserved for another 'informer.'

No surprise was caused by the statement made by Kavanagh, on cross-examination, that he had only turned informer on Thursday last. Had he [illegible] sooner he would not come forward [illegible] he was last have been charged, as [illegible] Monday, with the attempted murder of Mr Field; and it is, no doubt, owing to his identification by the girl who saw him waiting for the assassins that his determination to become an approver is to be traced. All the other witnesses called yesterday were produced, with a view to corroborate various points in Kavanagh's narrative.

EXCURSION TO THE SOUTH.

THE PROVINCIAL PENITENTIARY.

(Concluded.)

The borers and rough cutters are not criminals, but workmen employed by the day; they are for the most part Italians. The former loosen the blocks of stone and cut them up into smaller bodies, which are then handed down to the latter, who polish their surfaces and give them irregular forms of parallelopipedons. The stones are then delivered to the fine cutters. The borers and rough cutters employed are ten in numbers.

The fine cutters and "adoquineros" are old criminals and count 22 one of them is cook, and does not cut stone. He is a half-blind Italian, possessing such a benign countenance as would lead one to imagine he would be incapable of doing wrong. However, appearances are very often deceptive.

These works are all carried on in the open air, and in the same quarry. Three sentinels are always on guard, and the professional foreman (Sr. Rouchetti), formerly director of the works in Montevideo, always carries a loaded revolver. It is impossible to form an idea how difficult it is to keep those criminals at their work, and to see that they do it properly. As can easily be imagined, none of them work with a will, and it requires great watchfulness on the part of the overseers to keep them all working.

At present there is a "pardo" here who has refused to work, and has been placed as "planton" for the last nine days in the quarry, whilst his companions are cutting stones. As the establishment has no fixed rules, the Governor is very cautious in punishing him, as it often turns out that the punishment which the Governor inflicts does not always meet with the approbation of the Government, and is consequently a rather risky business. To back up this, the "Guardia de Carceles," which is composed of 40 men and three officers, was up to a short time ago under no authority whatever.

Sr. Uriarte has remedied this irregularity by shewing the Government the necessity, and how much the security of the place rested on his having full authority over everything and everybody in the establishment. This new departure will, without a doubt, increase the authority which the Governor should hold, and to-day it is more necessary than ever, as very shortly the number of criminals will be increased to 40, so that if any of them should become disorderly in the future, he can deal summarily, and without fear, with them, according as their case may require.

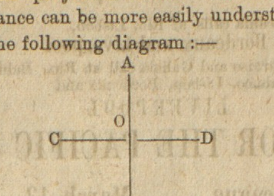

You can very easily believe that if a rebellion took place amongst the criminals it would be a much more serious affair than any Indian invasion. They would not only plunder the whole country lying around the Penitentiary, including the three Russian Colonies, but, well armed, they would also march on Olavarria, surprise it, and without a doubt sack it. The very idea of such a thing taking place requires the deepest consideration, and the Government should do everything in its power to erect the boundary wall as soon as possible, besides investing the Governor with the fullest possible authority.

I am not exaggerating my fears; at present there are here four prisoners suspected of inciting their companions to rebellion, and which may very easily take place, as the 40 men who guard the place can never be together in service, but are split up into three bodies, as is the case with all military guards.

The one great stumbling-block that at present exists is the want of a railway. As long as the stones are used here it is well enough, but when such a place as La Plata or any other large town requires them, it will be impossible to send them without the aid of the locomotive.

Some time ago a project was drawn up to establish a branch that would join Sierra Baya and Sierra Chica, crossing the Southern Railway. This branch was accepted at first by the President of the Western Railway, as it was the only way that the quarries and lime-kilns of Sierra Baya could be worked, besides being the only means of carrying its productions to the main line without a considerable outlay.

This projected branch and its importance can be more easily understood by the following diagram:—

The line A—B represents the direction of the Southern Railway, C—D the projected branch, C representing the Sierra Chica and D the quarries and lime kilns of Siera Baya. The transport of stones from C to O, or rather from C to A (where we will suppose the Hinojo Station will be situated) will represent a considerable increase in the cost, owing to the high charges for carts and other vehicles to remove the stones—a difficulty which can be obviated by placing rails on the inclined plane offered by the difference of level between points C and O, which amounts to 40 metres in a lineal distance of 5000 metres.

It stands to reason that the main object of the Penitentiary works should be to send to this market paving stones at a cheaper rate than those that are forwarded from the Banda Oriental, otherwise the quarries would be little less than useless, or a farce.

As regards the connection with the Sierra Baya, the utility of same may be gathered from the fact that many days of the year are rainy and impede working in the quarries; these days might be turned to account by extracting lime from the Sierra Baya for the public buildings of the Province. On the other hand, the prisoners who are handy in the quarry cuttings might also be employed in the marble quarries, and supply the scarcity of hands which is at present felt in the marble districts of the Sierra.

The railway that takes the prisoners from the Sierra Chica to the Sierra Baya, that transports the granite, marble and lime for Government account to the railways, might also work for private account in the same branches, being most useful to the Hinojo Colony, since it would cross 12 kilometres of wheat fields. But up to the present the building of this railway, as that of the Penitentiary, can only be considered a project, since the neighbours about have very aptly applied to the present state of the works the mere denomination of an encampment.

It behoves the Government to fulfill its promises and to advance as soon as possible the present rudimentary condition of the prison. Under the present circumstances, when we least expect it, the prisoners may clear beyond the reach of the Police.

The Governor has, meantime, drawn up rules which will no doubt form the basis of the future regulations.

The prisoner rises a quarter of an hour before day light; he washes and makes his own breakfast in the galpon. At sunrise they start for the quarry and commence work if the weather is favourable. A 8 a.m. they return to the galpon and have a large cup of coffee, or during the present season and by their own request, a cup of yerba tea with biscuits. At 8½ they return to work and continue at it until 12, when they are called to breakfast, after which they rest half-an-hour, when work is resumed. At 6½ p.m., work is stopped, and stones cut that day counted, after which they return to dine. At 10 p.m. the order for silence is given, after which no prisoner can speak nor even sit up in bed. If he requires anything, he must call to the sentry in a loud voice. Such is the regime on working days; on Sundays and feast days they do not work in the quarries, but are employed at some other work. Every Sunday a thorough cleaning up takes place, and the prisoner washes his clothes. Every feast day the dormitories are emptied out and the bedsteads, floors, etc., are washed.

The correspondence coming in and going out is subject to a minute scrutiny by the Governor. In no case are the prisoners prevented from speaking with their friends, but the conversation must always be carried on in presence of one of the employees of the Prison.

The meals of the prisoners are healthy and nourishing, as well as being of good quality and quantity. Everything connected with this establishment has method and judgment, and the results can be judged from a glance at the prisoners, employees and soldiers, who are all strong and healthy. The very fact of there being no doctor or 'botica' in the place, speaks volumes in itself. They have a small medicine chest on the premises, but no one in the establishment can mix the medicines. Although the public health of the establishment does not require either one or the other of the above requisites at present, it would be well that this deficiency should be remedied in case any epidemic should break out in future. To sum up: there is very little done in Sierra Chica, but everything is good and promises in a short time to give great results.

EDITOR'S TABLE

Wiggins for ever! We must put him on our free list! True to the day and hour which the learned Canadian Professor predicted several months ago, the Storm Fiend rushed on North America. Telegrams from Mexico on Sunday reported an appalling hurricane in the Gulf and all over North America on that day. It is really astonishing how a man with such a name as Wiggins can predict the pranks of Eolus with such unerring accuracy. Let no one, after this, refer to the old axiom, "no man is a prophet in his own country," or, if he do, let him add—Wiggins excepted. On Saturday we did not believe in Wiggins; to-day we swear as hard by him as by the Loreto lands, at the risk of getting a wigging for our sudden conversion.

We have news from our esteemed friend and physician, Dr. Lausen, by the Minho. He was in Batavia in excellent health, in December, and is shortly expected back here. He has sent us a splendid box of tea from Hong-Kong.

We remind the public that the fast steamer Maskelyne does not leave Montevideo for Europe till to-morrow, so that letters posted by to-night's river boat will catch her.

The Aconcagua's mails from Europe will be up this morning. The object of the Empress Eugenie's visit to Paris was to recognise Prince Napoleon as head of the family, but she will take no part in any movement against the Republic. Terrible flare-up in Constantinople, by 4,000 military widows, who could not get their pensions out of the Treasury—in other words, "blood out of a turnip."

The Jury of Appeal, relating to municipal inscription of the Socorro parish, holds its sessions at the Juzgado de Paz, every evening at half-past seven, Sundays and feast-days included, until the 25th inst. Electors will find it better to claim their rights now than grumble at heavy imposts hereafter. The jury is composed of men, under the presidency of Mr. D. C. Kelly, who are determined to give every claimant a fair hearing, without inquiring whether he fights under the banner of the Red or the White Rose.

General Villegas has at last sent his "parte" about the scuffle at Lonquimay. See another column. The Chilian Press is extremely bitter over the unfortunate affair.

We beg to apologise to the Central Argentine Railway Company for, inadvertently, saying the other day that it was one of the lines on which there are no night trains. We were wrong, as we sometimes (so seldom that it is barely worth while recalling the fact) have been before, and may be again. There is a night train between Rosario and Cordoba, and vice-versa with very nice sleeping-cars; and, in the arms of Morpheus. the long journey is not unpleasant.

On Sunday there was a pleasing affair at the Scotch Church, viz., the presentation of a beautiful and costly Bible to Mr. John Farrar, on the occasion of his marriage to Miss Heslop. The sacred volume was the gift of his fellow-teachers and the pupils of the Scotch Sunday-school, the inscription, which is extremely beautiful, being the work of two of the teachers. Mr. Farrar has well earned such a flattering mark of esteem; he is a pillar of the Sunday School, and has for years been its zealous Secretary.

We regret to announce the death of Mr Cyril Woodgate, who was shot on his way, on Sunday evening, from the Railway Station to the ostrich farm in Merlo. The Comisario has arrested a party on suspicion, and we await further particulars about this melancholy affair. Mr Cyril Woodgate had been for the last 20 years in this country, and at the time of his death was at the ostrich farm Merlo. Deceased was a native of Liverpool and 47 years of age. We condole with his brothers and other members of his family on their loss.

Early in the century a rich Englishman left his daughters their weight in one-pound bank notes. The elder got fifty-one thousand two hundred pounds, the younger fifty-seven thousand three hundred and forty-four pounds—the handsomest pair of paper-weights on record.

General Osborn and Mr Bowers had quite an ovation on Sunday when landing at the mole. The National Government sent the 'falua de gala' of the Capitania for the U. States Minister, and the courteous Port Captain added another for Mr Bowers. Consul Baker and a large party of friends went off to welcome the General, who looks immensely improved in health by his trip, and so does Mr Bowers.

There is sad news from San Luis: The editor of the only paper in the place is dying, and the overture to the Wiggins storm was played there on Friday, causing considerable damage and alarm, although the heavy rain will save all the camps.

The square of wooden pavement in Calle Suipacha, between Piedad and Cangallo, is a veritable luxury for man and beast. The absence of noise is delightful; and the horses absolutely switch their tails and cock their ears with pleasure at the unexpected ease to their "poor feet." The sooner the whole town, or at least the central and business part, is paved on the Nettleship system the better. In London it has proved the greatest success.

We remind our readers that the lists for 'The Revd. Mr Smith Testimonial Fund' will close on Thursday. We should like to see every English name in the Plate connected with this compliment to so excellent a man and pastor.

The concert at the Florida Gardens on Sunday night was splendid, but the audience was scanty. A pleasant breath of wind always keeps our hot-house High Life folk at home. The gem of the evening was the performance on the violin of Haydn's exquisite Serenata, by Professor Rajneri. We have never heard a more masterly performance on the instrument. The audience were spell-bound, and a pin could have been heard to drop till the last note died away, when ringing applause burst forth, and the Professor had to accede to an encore. It was this "chef d'œuvre" of the great composer which the late Prince Consort had played for him by his favourite daughter, the late Princess Alice of Hesse, when informed by the doctors that his last hour was at hand. The fantasia from Lucrezia Borgia was excellently played, aye, just as well as the Covent Garden orchestra could do it. The overture to Auber's Domino Noir was also well played, but did not evoke the same applause. These concerts are a decided treat, and we advise our readers to enjoy them while the weather continues fine, which may not be for very long.

Never was there a larger or more select audience than assembled in the saloon of the Club Germania on Saturday night to witness the performance for the benefit of the sufferers by the inundations on the Rhine. The pieces were well given and met with much applause, and all united, both ladies and gentlemen, in doing their utmost to make the evening's entertainment pass off pleasantly. Too much praise cannot be given to those persons who so kindly gave their time and attention in getting up this entertainment in order to alleviate, to some extent, the sufferings of the unfortunate people in a distant land. After the performance dancing was kept up till daybreak, when everyone went home satisfied with having spent an enjoyable night, besides contributing his share to a good work.

"Augustus, dear," she said, tenderly pushing him from her, as the moonlight flooded the bay window where they were standing, "I think you had better try some other hair-dye; your moustache tastes like turpentine."

A French paper gravely reports that "Lord" Gladstone is "l' hôte de son ami Lord Palmerston. (At his chateau in the land o' the leal, we suppose!) The same journal discovered, or invented, Sir Beapston, Esquire," and has also indulged in many other little playful eccentricities with our insular names. Another says that "Sir" Gladstone is accompanied by "Lady" and Miss Gladstone.

"It is in the hour of danger that woman thinks least of her self." So says Madame de Stael, and truly. When the thunder roars and lightning flashes, and the big drops come down, the woman, surprised by the storm, devotes her agony to the thought that her bonnet and jacket will be ruined.

It is rumoured that the calling out of the National Guard for drill will be indefinitely postponed.

A new tenor (Prevost) has appeared in Italy and beats Tamagno into fits in the chest "do" line. Signor P. shouts out a chest "re" like a lion, and sometimes ventures on a "mi," but very meekly. In any case Tamagno is snuffed out.

The German Singing Academy will give a grand Sacred concert next Monday, (Holy Week) at which Cherubni's Requiem will be performed for the first time in this city. The rest of the programme is equally good. The concert will be repeated on Holy Saturday.

Archbishop Aneiros blessed the new church at the Boca on Sunday, and President Roca and Mrs. Cascallares La Paz were 'padrinos.' His Excellency gave a big purse full of money to be distributed amongst the poor of the locality.

We join our colleagues in asking the Lord Mayor to put his vigorous heel on rockets and the Judas nuisance in Holy Week. The custom is both silly and dangerous and a relic of barbarism disgraceful to a civilized city.

Twenty five thousand paper dollars are offered as a reward for some National Bank Shares lost on Saturday. Good chance for an active man with good sight, or good spectacles.

Our Italian fellow-citizens had another of those turns-out they love so well, on Sunday, when they marched about 1,000 strong with bands and banners from Plaza Mayo to Mazzini's statue on Paseo Julio, and covered the railings round it with "immortelles." The greatest order prevailed throughout the proceedings.

The tide was very high at the Boca on Sunday, and the Riachuelo almost blocked up with shipping. There was not much smell from the water, although it was inexpressibly filthy with refuse thrown overboard from the ships, and this abuse is one of the main causes of the state of the stream.

A terrible case of infanticide, in which some highly respectable (?) people are implicated, are reported by our colleagues.

The Southern Railway men and friends are now looking forward to their annual sports and pic-nic, but we believe the day has not yet been named.

Dr. James Kelly, of Boston, has arrived in the Minho, to join Dr. Grace in the direction of Holy Cross College.

The Lord Mayor is not easily beaten. The Uruguay and San Luis Lottery empresas were green enough to pay 2,000 pts. Patente the other day, under the pleasing delusion that this contribution to the public burden would enable them to sell their tickets in this city without let or hindrance. Vainest of delusions! The Lord Mayor has come down on their devoted heads like a million of hot bricks, and, in a letter to the Minister of the Interior, gives chapter and verse why he will not tolerate poaching on his own Lottery grounds. The question now is, will the San Luis and Uruguay Lotteries ever get back their 4,000 pats?

Ayer's Hair Vigour
(A DESIDERATUM)

Prepared according to scientific and physiological bases with the object of bettering the condition of the hair, it stimulates the enfeebled glands of the scalp into healthy action, arrests the falling of the hair and promotes its luxuriant growth; rendering it soft, youthful and glossy.

This excellent preparation, the best and without doubt the only one as a remedial agent for the many defects and diseases to which the hair is subject, calls for and merits the most serious attention of all those who have had the misfortune to lose partially this most beautiful and natural ornament. AYER'S HAIR VIGOUR employed intelligently has obtained really surprising results. Faded or grey hair it restores to its original colour; and lost hair is often, but not always, reproduced.

It has always PREVENTED FALLING of the hair; whilst as a dressing ladies say it is the most agreeable as it is the most beneficent. Containing neither dye nor oil, it does not soil the finest cambric.

The Rev. Mr. Smith
Testimonial Fund.

At the General Meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Buenos Ayres, held on the 31st January, 1883, attention was called to the near approach of the time when the Rev. James Smith's official connection with the Church and people of Buenos Ayres would cease. The propriety of some manifestation being made by the Community on this occasion, to mark its appreciation of a life's work, having been mooted and unanimously recognised, it was resolved that such manifestation should assume the form of a pecuniary gift to the Rev. Gentleman, and a Committee was at the same time nominated with the view of carrying such resolution into effect.

In pursuance of this resolution, the Committee beg to inform the Community who sympathise with them in the matter, that Subscription Lists for signature will be found at the undermentioned places.

Other Lists will be forwarded to some of the outlying districts of Buenos Ayres and the Oriental Republic. Members residing at a distance, desirous of taking part in this manifestation, and who may not have access to any of these List-sheets, can obtain them upon application to the Honorary Secretary, David Methven jun., Calle Reconquista 89, who will also be ready to receive any particular subscription towards the same object up to March 15th, prox.

To Sheep and Cattle Breeders of small Capital.

Towards the end of last year, we advertized 112 lots of half a league each, or say 800 squares of camp for sale at Gainza, to the West of Lincoln, payable $12,500 cash down, and $14,062 in yearly payments for eight years, without any interest. The last payment coming due on the year 1891.

We then described the pastures of these Gainza camps, as being different to those found generally an Virgin Camps. Instead of the hard grasses usually found, we have here a species of gramilla, suitable at once for sheep in prudent quantities, which covers two-thirds of the surface.

We invited small sheepfarmers to go out and judge for themselves. We invited them to inspect the prosperous condition of the sheep on the camp at the estancia house at Gainza. The occupations of shearing and deposit of wools joined to the hot season prevented as full a response to our appeal as we would have wished. Nevertheless several camp friends went out to see the land, and strange to say every man who went took lots, some of half a league, and some up to two leagues.

The railroad to Valparaiso passes through the property, and the basis of a colony is already established. Ranchos and corrales will spring up immediately, and a man living on his own land will bring in the aid of the plough to produce abundance around him.

We have still various lots for sale, and we conscientiously advise our camp friends to go out and look at these Gainza lands, with the conviction that once seen, and as has occurred up to this time, each man will be desirous of securing lots according to his means.

On the 1st, 11th and 21st of each month the train from the Once, will conduct parties interested, direct to Gainza via Lincoln, in galera. At the estancia house in Gainza peons are in attendance to show these lands to purchasers.

WOMAN'S SPHERE—There are few men now so benighted as to believe that woman's mission can be summed up in Shakespeare's words: "To suckle fools and chronicle small beer." Yet a woman is none the worse for knowing how to bake bread or make a custard, and in both these little arts she is greatly assisted by Messrs. Borwick & Sons, who, for her convenience, have produced their celebrated 'Baking Powder' and Gold Medal 'Custard Powder.' With the former article the most palatable bread, cakes, and pastry can be produced speedily, and with marvellously little trouble; whilst, with the latter, she is independent of the domestic hen, and can make the most delicious custards, blanc-manges &c, at half the usual cost.

ON 'CHANGE.

March 12th, 1883

Patacon	25.00
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas E	85⅝
National Bank Shares	110
Municipal Bonds 6 o/o	84

The week has opened upon a firm and rising National Bank Share market; speculation in the stock seems at last to be raising its head, and some of the well-known speculators of last year are again on 'Change and again directing their brokers. In Cedulas there was also a very large business done. Series E is the favourite stock and was bought to-day for end of April at 86, and for end of May at 86¼-⅜. Over a quarter of a million patacons in Cedulas bought and sold to-day. Series A rules dull at 100½. The new Municipal Bonds are coming pretty freely on the market; a sale made to-day, 21,000 at 84.

National Bank Shares opened for cash at 110¾ and closed at 110. For end of month 3,400 ex dividend sold, opening at 106½, dropping to 105⅝ and closing buyers at 106. For April 2,250 sold, opening at 107¼, rising to 107¾, then dropping to 107, and finally closing at 107¼. Total sales 6,118 shares, which for present times is a large day's business.

The Nattional Bank loan which hung fire so long, and which has been finally arranged by the Government brokers, Messrs Acosta and Alkaine, is the talk of all the market. They say on 'Change, we know not how true it may be, that the business was done in Paris and London by a house here; of course the terms of this business are kept up as a great secret, but the impression in the market is that the whole affair is nothing more nor less than an exchange credit which the Nat. Bank holds in London whenever it may require to draw; the credit being guaranteed by the Nat. Bonds and other Government securities held by the Bank, and the totality of the credit is put down at about five millions patacons The great ability of the Government brokers in concluding a business in which others failed must be apparent, and the commission on the business, one of the largest in this market for some time, is well earned. The large amount of money puts the National Bank on the strongest footing, and as the Provincial Bank, between the gold in its vaults and the balances it has in London, holds close on Ten millions patacones, we may safely calculate that now the total available specie in the market, including the gold held by the private banks, must be over Twenty-five millions patacons; or say over Five millions sterling. We believe at no previous period has the market had so much available gold, and as the production of the country is steadily increasing, as also its population, the pressure of imports which is so much commented on may be equalised by the growing prosperity of the country, of which none can doubt. The money that is at present spent on new railways and public works of every description is something truly astonishing; but nearly all this gigantic outlay is on reproductive works. Our railways are spreading out in evey direction; our new cattle estancias springing up in the wild open camps that hitherto produced nothing. Let us accept this National Bank Loan as another impetus to the market, its trade and commerce, which are so expanding and so growing that we want more banks and more capital to carry on the legitimate trade of Buenos Ayres.

The Minho is expected up in the morning, but her passengers came up on Sunday.

Mr. C. S. Bowers, one of our leading American merchants, was enveloped in friends when he entered the Hall; he arrived with his family yesterday.

The Lucerne entered at Montevideo; she brings 900 tons for there and 1000 tons for here; already she has her return cargo all engaged at 25s and 10 for Dunkirk and Havre. She will be up on Wednesday and sails on 20th.

The Donaldson steamer Marana entered Montevideo last night, dates Liverpool 10th. She brings the cargo of the Ocean King, and will be up on Wednesday.

The Vasconia has all her cargo engaged for Bordeaux at 20 and 10 for bales.

The passengers for Maskelyne had a hard time of it going off on Sunday—every soul on board sick. The river was so rough that Captain Hairby, with great attention, weighed anchor and came inside one or two miles, so as to save the ladies going out in the little steamer so rough and so far.

Advices from Lincoln to-day report it raining very hard out there and camps looking splendid.

Telegrams in to-day state that the Wiggins storm in North America took place yesterday, doing the greatest damage.

From Olavarria the news to-day was that the bridge broke down and is washed away.

The British barque Gloster has entered the Santa Fé arroyo with great success and loads wheat there, 800 tons. This event has spread joy through Sta. Fé.

The harvest in Santa Fé is now over and many of the hands are coming back to Buenos Aires; others are buying new chacras in the new colonies.

All the works on the Government Railways are now progressing very fast. We hear the earthworks on the Andine Railway are now within 30 kilómetres of the city of Mendoza.

500 fat novillos sold in San Juan for Chile market at $F65 each.

Property holders in Magdalena will have another month for the Jury Contribucion Directa appeals, and in Bahia Blanca they have 15 days more time.

The Aconcagua, with mails from Europe, is in Montevideo. The mails and 100 emigrant passengers will be up in the morning.

The death of Mr. Kelsey, one of the oldest and most respected of our English barraqueros, was announced on 'Change. He died at the ripe age of 78, and deservedly respected and esteemed by all. He had been for some time very feeble and in infirm health, so his demise was not unexpected. His funeral took place this afternoon at four o'clock.

Telegrams report it very rough in Montevideo and a strong wind blowing. The Maskelyne will not be able to sail before Wednesday at noon from there.

At afterhours the National Bank Share market ruled firm and upwards; sales made at 106⅞ for end of month. Nothing now sold for end of month save ex dividend. In Cedulas nothing particularly important done.

The Diario published the very important news of the National Bank loan negotiation, and that the House of Bemberg, Heimendahl andCo. did the business, which by many merchants was attributed to another quarter.

Business in wool rules active enough, and good wools sell without the least check. Messrs. Duggan sold this morning 3,000 @ at 80. We hear of large wool transactions in San Nicolas, and the great barraquero firm up there, Terrasona & Co., have baled more this year than ever before.

A business in saladero produce was spoken of on 'Change, but the terms are reserved.

Exchange ruled firmer this afternoon and looks up, 49⅜ and 5.17-5.20.

There was great talk on 'Change to-day about the well-founded complaints of the agents of the ss. Bearn. Over 300 of the 3rd class passengers were kept on board not only the day of their arrival in port, but all that night, to the immense inconvenience of the owners of the steamer, and of the unfortunate passengers. We trust the Minister of the Interior will require Mr. Navarro, the Immigration Agent, to give full explanations of this matter, as it is not the first time it has occurred, and we confess our surprise that Mr. Navarro, who must be well aware of the great inconveniences to the immigrants, would allow such a thing to occur. In shipbroker circles the matter is much talked of, and we hope that for the credit of the Immigration Department, of which Mr. Navarro is the head, the abuse will not be repeated.

Advices from Rio announce that some forged bills of the Provincial Bank of Buenos Aires have been seized up there; the notes are for 200 m/c each, and several arrests have been made; on the parties arrested, forged Brazilian paper money was also discovered. It is presumed that these Provincial Bank notes for 200 m/c were manufactured or engraved in Brazil. The Brazilian authorities merit every praise for their great promptness in following up the forgers.

Everyone on the Bolsa asks what's the delay about the Transandine Railway works? Several influential men have interviewed Mr. Clarke, who says that he can do nothing, owing to the Western Railway Board not having as yet granted the EMPALME. Hundreds of people who own property in the far west are waiting for the works to be begun, to commence stocking their lands. We call Dr. Jorge's attention to the matter.

The gold which the Minho has brought is bar gold for the Mint, worth £40,000 stg., and comes to the National Minister of Hacienda. The Minho brings a very large assorted cargo.

1,000 bales sheepskins
127 bales wool
10 bales hair
3,500 dry hides
4,800 bags wheat
100 cases oil.

The steamer Patria, from Marseilles, entered Montevideo, and her mails came up yesterday; this is a new steamer; every day now we record new steamers arriving.

The Cosmos to-night takes down a mail for the Pacific steamer Aconcagua expected in from Europe arrived; she sails for Pacific on the 13th instant.

The meeting of the National Bank shareholders is called for Wednesday 14th; the same tickets issued for the last meeting will serve on the present occasion; the meeting is entirely pro-forma, and merely to approve of the report of the inspecting committee, and the dividend proposed, 5 per cent, which we apprehend no one will object to.

Nothing has been heard of the National Bank shares lost the other day by one of our brokers; the shares did not belong to the broker but to his client, which makes the affair all the more disagreeable; parties buying or holding National Bank shares should always for safeguard take the numbers, as they are payable to bearer, and hence like bank notes.

There are nine foreign ships at present unloading in the port of Bahia Blanca; a large British barque 1,200 tons is alongside the railway mole discharging, and a fine French barque entered Bahia Blanca the other day all sails set, without pilot or tug, but unfortunately she ran on a bank and, amidst the laughter of the British Captains in that port, she got aground on one of the "cangregales". We understand that after April 15th Lamport & Holt's steamers will begin to arrive there two each month, and then no more sailing vessels will be chartered in England for Bahia Blanca. This indeed will work a wonderous change in that port, which is destined ere long to be one of the greatest for commerce on the East coast of South America.

It is rumoured that all the gunpowder at Martin Garcia is damaged by the damp from the casemates, some 200 tons.

The trade of Marseilles with the R. Plate shows steady progress, according to the returns recently published by the Argentine Consul at that port. Owing to some port difficulties in Italy, many of the Italian emigrants ship for the R. Plate from Marseilles. In the last quarter of 1882 the export trade of Marseilles to the R. Plate occupied seven steamers and ten sailing vessels of a tonnage of 18,724 tons. Some bar gold for the Mint has been shipped from Marseilles. The import trade of Marseilles with the R. Plate occupied 19 vessels during the three months. The steamer Rio La Plata, that brought 4,565 bags maize, had to throw over board 700 bags.

Messrs. Stuart Williams & Co., shipbrokers of Montevideo, give the following shipping list under date March 9th, 1883:—

Vessels cleared, ready to sail, and departed since February 25th—
Victoria in ballast for B. Aires
Carlo Mainetto, do, West Coast

Istria to load in B. Aires stones, $1¾
Pietro do to Havre general cargo, various

Freights—
The excess of outside steam tonnage that was piled upon the market at the commencement of the season, causing rates to tumble so low, has been afraid to return to the River Plate, therefore with a few exceptions the regular lines again have it their own way, and rates by these lines are very firm at last quotations, and there is every probability of a further advance.

Sailing vessels are getting more and more scarce daily, and as there are plenty of cargoes of grain offering, freights must advance.

We have chartered vessels this week at 29½ francs; a short time ago the highest offer being 25 francs.

In tallow and salted hides very little has been doing, or freights for these cargoes would have advanced considerably, as so few suitable vessels remain unchartered; 35s and 5 o/o for salted hides and 32s and 5 o/o for tallow are the current rates offered, which Captains refuse to take.

El Jueves 15 de Marzo

A las 2 p.m.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y sin limitacion de ninguna clase, los mas afamados campos de la Provincia de Santa Fe conocidos por Loreto distantes unicamente 25 leguas de Pergamino, 6 de la colonia Iriondo, 10 de la colonia Alvear (La Teodolina) 13 de la Estacion Tortugas del Ferro Carril Central Argentino, 16 de la Cañada de Gomez, Estacion del mismo Ferro Carril y entre el Ferro Carril de Clark, el proyectado ramal del F. C. del O. desde el Pergamino al Rio 4° y el Oeste Santafesino. Estos campos lindan con los famosos y conocidos del Venado Tuerto y con estancias, como la de los Sres Ostendorp y Ca., Diego Alvear, heredero de Armstrong y otros.

Los campos que acaba de vender el Gobierno de la Provincia a 400,000 $m/c estan mas distantes de la Capital que estos que ofrecemos en venta.

Ademas con la rapidez que se esten construyendo los Ferro Carriles y ramales en la Republica demuestran claramente que en un corto tiempo la poblacion va a estenderse extraordinariamente y entonces toda la propiedad rural tiene que triplicar su valor, de manera que cuando llegue a vencerse el ultimo plazo el comprador se encontrara con una propiedad valiosa.

La calidad del campo se garante igual al Venado Tuerto por lo tanto creemos inutil entrar en mayores descripciones sobre el terreno, sus pastos etc, ademas la persona que quiera ver y examinarlos puede tomar la Galera que va del Pergamino al Hinojo ocurriendo por la pasage gratis al Sr D. Eduardo Casey Reconquista num. 80

El campo sera dividido en lotes de ½ (media) legua teniendo el comprador el derecho de tomar cuatro leguas por el mismo precio.

Todos los lotes seran vendidos sin reserva de ninguna clase al mas alto postor y el pago se hara una cuarta parte al contado y el resto en cuatro anualidades con el 7 o/o de interes. Los planos de estos campos podran obtenerse del 20 del corriente Febrero en adelante ocurriendo a casa del Sr D. Eduardo Casey num. 80, o a nuestra casa Alsina 78.

El Viernes, 16 de Marzo

A las 3 de la tarde

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, por orden terminante de sus propietarios y liquidacion entre socios, los campos arriba indicados, cuyos pormenores son los siguientes.

SECCION 1° LOTE N. 21 de la fraccion B linda por el Oeste con campos del conocido commerciante Sr D R J Runciman al Norte con el Sr S. Rose Duffield, gerente del nuevo Banco Ingles, al Este con el Sr. D Emilio Furt y al Sud con el Sr D. J. R. Brooks. La candidad del campo es sobresaliente, con aguada permanente, arboles en el mismo campo. Se presta admirablemente para la cria de ganado vacuno y lanar por tener mucho pasts tierno trevolares etc.

LOTE num. 2 de la fraccion D lindando por el Oeste y Sud con campos del Sr D. Eduardo Casey, al Norte con el Sr. D Marcelino Ugarte y al Este con el Sr. D. J. Allan es en un todo, igual al lote anterior, magnificos montes y mucho pasto fino.

SECCION 7° LOTES num. 6 y 15 de la fraccion B lindan con la seccion 1° con los Srs Eujenio Mataldi, Juan Penes, otras personas conocidas. La calidad de estos campos es excelente, aproposito para la cria de toda clase de ganado.

Todos estos campos no estan muy distantes de los que el Gobierno de la Provincia acaba de vender en la Seccion XII a razon de 480,000 $m/c la legua.

La poblacion se esta extendiendo rapidamente hasta este lado y con los Ferros Carriles ya en construccion van a tomar muy pronto un valor incalculable.

Sin Base!

Las personas que quieran invertir su dinero no encontrarian una ocasion mas favorable, y deben tomar todos los datos respecto a estos campos, mandarlos ver, etc., estamos seguros que no dejarán de comprar algun lote.

The Nettleship Wood Pavement.

The square in Calle Suipacha, between Piedad and Cangallo, which has been paved on "Nettleship's system of Wood-paving," will be opened to public traffic to-day (Sunday). The contractor invites those who use horses and vehicles of any description to try same over said square, so as to be able to give their opinion on the advantages of the new system over that of stonepaving. The advantages claimed for this system are:—Safety, comfort, easy traction, noiselessness, durability, less destruction of horse shoes, also of carriage tyres and springs, the vibration being greatly reduced, small radiation of heat. This system can be laid with rapidity, and repairs to sewers or gas pipes effected with facility, and without in anyway injuring or weakening the original foundation. It is impervious to water and, owing to its general solidity and great strength of foundation, this pavement will be found to require less frequent removals than other systems, thus securing a smaller amount of obstructions to the public traffic, and in the end much cheaper.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne ; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne ; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomitting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleratic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
